

Second Week of the Big Sale

The Marvelous Values we are offering is the talk of Honolulu

We will continue until the whole of this Special Purchase is turned into coin

ON MONDAY, October 3rd, we will place a large purchase of LACES on offer, probably the biggest line of LACES ever imported at one time. The prices will be astonishingly cheap, but to effectively show the entire lot. We must have plenty of room so as to clear space. Next week, beginning on MONDAY, we will feature

HOME RULERS GETTING BUSY

Port of a county and legislative ticket was nominated yesterday afternoon by the Home Rulers in convention assembled at Nottley Hall, and the remainder is being fixed up today by a caucus of the county committee. The Home Rulers turned out

In considerable numbers and armed with plenty of speeches, and will, they declare, make themselves felt the coming campaign. The ticket as settled upon yesterday is as follows: Senators—David Kalaauokalani, Kamahele, John Poe and S. L. Paley, Sr., long term; William White, short term; William Mossman Jr., long term; Peter Kealakai Honua, long term.

Representatives—G. M. Keone, expects to have filled out the blanks Ewa; Kulueamaka, Laie; W. K. Ka-lei, left by the convention. The committee will either name Home Ruler, Honolulu; D. Ahia, Honolulu; A. P. ers or endorse candidates now on the Paoo, Honolulu—all from the Fifth Republican or Democratic tickets. It ter."

was stated this morning that a number of Republicans stood good chances of endorsement. Incidentally, Charles K. Nottley, the Home Rulers' candidate for Delegate, declared emphatically that under no circumstances will he withdraw from the race. "All reports that I will withdraw are false and absurd," he says. "I certainly will not do anything to aid the Democratic boss, McCandless. I am going to make this campaign a hot one from the start, and will let the people know that I am not a quitter."

TOUGHS APPEAR BEFORE ANDRADE

Townsend, the Marine who was so badly beaten up by a bunch of toughs a few nights ago, is now out at Fort Ruger hospital, where he is doing as well as can be expected. The man got a fearful beating from the men who jumped him as he was sitting talking to a girl in Aala Park. Chief McDuffie has been working on the case, and he has gathered in several members of the Vineyard street gang who have all been charged with assault and battery. Four young men, Kahae, John Peter, H. Kahookano and Santos appeared before Judge Andrade this morning. They were defended by C. F. Chillingworth and on his application were remanded till Thursday next for trial. The Vineyard street gang has been giving a lot of trouble lately and small fines or short imprisonments seem to be of no use in putting a stop to the outrages of the bunch.

Plugging would be the best treatment for these young toughs, who appear to be growing up to grace the scaffold. Corporal Clarence Bauerback, of Troop D, Fifth Cavalry, is anxious to have a go at Jim Hoao, the native wonder. The Lelehuas man fought an eight round draw some time ago with Soldier McCullough and as Hoao took ten rounds to get the decision over McCullough, the go between the two, armyman and Hoao should be a good one.
